

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY. Even marble and stone were prone to damage from the tornado. This image of St. Mary's Cemetery on Charlestown Road shows several stones uprooted or damaged. The chapel in the center is no longer standing.

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY. This postcard shows another view of St. Mary's Cemetery, which was heavily damaged by the tornado. Note the massive size of some of the headstones and monuments that were toppled by the fierce winds.